

A PROPOSAL YOU CAN READ IN TWO MINUTES

A Qur'an reading class for the adults in your community.

Every masjid has adults who pray correctly, raise children in the deen, and were never taught the letters. Almost nobody says it out loud, and nobody has the hours to teach them. We will run that class for your community — announced by you, taught by us, at no cost to the masjid.

COST TO THE MASJID	COST TO A STUDENT	FORMAT	SCOPE
Nothing	$50 / month	Live & recorded	Qā'idah → Juz 'Amma
No hosting fee, no minimum, no revenue share.	Cancel any time. Sponsored seats and reduced rates exist.	Small weekly cohort online. Every session recorded.	The letters through to the thirtieth juz with tajwīd.

What the masjid does

- ◆ Announces it. From the minbar, the newsletter, the group chat. From you it is an invitation; from us it is an advertisement.
- ◆ Gives us one point of contact. A person who can answer a question in a day, not a committee.
- ◆ Tells us honestly what is needed. Who is asking, what has been tried, and what did not work.
- ◆ Optionally sponsors seats. Many masjid cover a few students who would not otherwise enrol. Never a condition.

What we do

- ◆ Teach it. Every session, by a former imam, from the letters to Juz 'Amma with tajwīd.
- ◆ Place every student. A short call each, out loud, so nobody sits in the wrong class and quietly leaves.
- ◆ Record every session. Students keep the recordings for the weeks they cannot attend.
- ◆ Handle the admin. Sign-ups, reminders, payments and the awkward money conversations — none of it lands on your office.
- ◆ Tell you how it went. Plainly, including if turnout was poor.

Who would be teaching your community

Hamza Abdul-Tawwaab — a former imam who taught Qur'an and led taraweeh before he built anything. He has taught at Islah LA in Los Angeles, Midtown Mosque in Memphis, Masjid As-Sabur in Las Vegas, and Atlanta Masjid in Atlanta. The $50 monthly fee was set on the advice of his own imam and is deliberately below the going rate.

BEFORE ANYONE IS CHARGED

Every student who signs up gets a short call, out loud, and is told honestly where they are starting from — including being told this class is not for them. That is the step most adult programs skip, and it is why most of them lose half their people by week four.

How it goes, start to finish

ONE	TWO	THREE	FOUR	AFTER
A conversation	You announce it	Everyone is placed	The cohort starts	You get the truth
Twenty minutes. Who is asking, roughly how many, what has been tried. If it is not a fit we say so on that call.	We give you the wording, a link and a date. Nothing to sign.	A short call each, out loud. The step most programs skip, and why most adult classes lose half their people.	Weekly, at an hour that suits the people who enrolled. Join from home, or gather in the building on one screen.	How many finished, how many can read who could not, and what we would do differently.

The whole ask

Announce it, give us one contact, and tell us honestly what your people need. There is no fee, no paperwork, and no obligation to continue after the first cohort.

Hamza Abdul-Tawwaab

hamza@inheritingislam.com

(470) 404-0648

inheritingislam.com/quran/masajid